1. The former building of the Board of Trade and Industry on Graf Schack Allee in Schwerin housed a KVP registration office, which had been located on Schloss Strasse in Schwerin until August 1953.
2. Officers assigned to this office included Colonel or Lieutenant Colonel Fluhr (fnu) chief; Major Mueller (fnu), deputy chief; Senior Lieutenant Glatz (fnu); and one Speckiehn (fnu), head of the registration department.
3. The office was presumably assigned the missions of a recruiting office and of recruiting volunteers for the KVP. Personnel of the office have already received premiums for successful recruiting. The staff of the office took preparatory measures for working day and night shifts in the event of the organization of East German Armed Forces which allegedly was imminent.

Comment. The office mentioned in the present report probably is the Bezirk recruiting office of the Schwerin KVP. Prior to the fall of 1952, Lieutenant Colonel Fluhr (fnu), was commander of the former cadre division in Gera.
